2024 SPAIN TOUR

Valencia, Granada, Madrid

4 Performances: 2 Band / 2 Jazz

Itinerary

Sunday, March 31, 2024 – Depart Los Angeles International Airport at 5:50 p.m. for your overnight journey to Spain on Iberia Airlines.

Monday, April 1, 2024 – Arrive Madrid Airport, after clearing passport control, collecting your luggage and passing through customs, you will meet your Spanish tour escort and depart to Valencia.

Valencia is located at the Mediterranean Sea, and you will find beaches right in the very heart of it. Important trade fairs confirm Valencia's position as one of the most dynamic cities in Spain, as does the spectacular Ciudad de las Artes y las Ciencias, the "City of Arts and Sciences," a newly constructed area of the city boasting extravagant architecture.
Overnight: Eurostars Don Jaime or similar (L, D)

Tuesday, April 2, 2024 – After breakfast you will depart for a Panoramic Tour of Valencia. Valencia's Old Town is limited by the rails of the tramway, which run where the old town walls were until 1865. Most monuments date to the time after the Reconquest of Valencia from the Moors, in 1238 by Jaime I. The Cathedral is early gothic style, though some parts of it were added in later eras. Its three portals are Romanesque, gothic and baroque, respectively. The main chapel, Capilla Mayor, is in baroque style, the two lateral chapels are neoclassic. Close to the cathedral there is a medieval granary that is now used as a museum. Well worth seeing by the river are the three old bridges, Puente Del Real, Puente de la Trinidad and Puente de Serranos, the latter with the Torres de Serranos, 15th century towers that have been part of the old town-walls and combine the elegance of a triumphal arch with the solidity of fortifications. The IVAM (Instituto Valenciano de Arte Moderno), located at the riverbed, is one of the leading museums of modern art in Spain.

Free time for lunch. In the afternoon, transfer to the venue for Rehearsal and evening Band Concert. Dinner will be with local band. Overnight: Eurostars Don Jaime or similar (B,L,D)

Thursday, April 4, 2024 – Today we visit the Complex of the Alhambra Palace. It was the largest political and aristocratic centre of the Moslem West. The Palace premises comprise beautiful rectangular courtyards and numerous fountains, as well as the Nasrid buildings that served as living quarters for the monarchs and their servants. The oldest building is the Alcazaba Citadel. The courtyard of the Lions with its fountains is one of the most beautiful in the compound.

There will be leisure time for lunch and shopping followed by an afternoon Rehearsal and Joint Band Concert in Granada followed by dinner with the local band.

Saturday, April 6, 2024 – This morning we will have a panoramic tour of Madrid. We begin our visit in one of the city's most modern zones where some of the tallest buildings on the European continent are located. Next comes the elegant shopping and dining area of Salamanca, as we pass the centuries-old Retiro Park before entering the fabulous Paseo del Prado, where numerous 18th century monuments are to be found (Apollo, Cibeles and Neptune fountains). We continue towards the heart of the old city, through the Puerta Del Sol, Arenal Street and Queen Isabel II Square, before a short stop to at the Royal Palace from the recently renovated Orient Square. We will visit the Prado Museum which is, without a doubt, the big star of the "Paseo del Arte" (Art Avenue) in Madrid. The Prado Museum has the world's largest collection of Spanish paintings. It is a unique ensemble, that goes from the Romanesque through to the 19th century, with
